THE GOTHIC

This yearbook is an attempt to capture in pictures and words, at least a reflection of those little incidents which signify a memorable part of your high school years. These have been years which played a decisive role in your lives. No matter what field of work you may enter later, your days here will never be forgotten. Glance back through this book often and reflect on your happy years at Brighton High.

ANNALS

Two attributes that more than one thousand students at Brighton High School share are a sense of pride in their school and respect for its traditions. Perhaps they are encouraged by our beautiful Gothic building with its hillside location commanding an impressive view of Boston. It is an historic location, too, for George Washington encamped on this same hill just before he went to Cambridge to assume command of the Continental Army.

In 1808 the old church on the corner of Washington and Market Streets in Brighton was converted into a combination classroom and town hall. To accommodate the more advanced students, the very first Brighton High, offering Latin, French, astronomy, philosophy, and mathematics was built on Academy Hill in 1841 with John Ruggles and Delia Gardner as headmasters.

The needs of this school increased and a new Brighton High School, offering a wider range of studies, was constructed in 1896 and opened under the headmastership of John G. Ryder. Finally in 1930, under a new program intended to provide work for the scores of unemployed caught up in the early depression years, Brighton High as it now stands was built on a hill overlooking the former high school, now the William Howard Taft Junior High School.

The last three years of the history of Brighton High in which we, the graduating class, have participated have been marked by nothing more monumental than the welding of warm friendships and the fun of good times. These wonderful memories will most certainly come back to us at the sight of our Brighton High, as it has to all Brighton alumni for more than one hundred and fifty years.

HEADMASTER

Mr. M. Henry McInerney

Reflection is the theme of your 1967 "Gothic." My class of 1917 had no yearbook. The "Castle on the Hill" is your Alma Mater; fifty years ago, the William Howard Taft building was. Mr. Frederick A. Tupper was our Head Master; a pupil of his is yours. The site of the Kennedy Memorial Hospital was a ledge with a stone crusher; that of the U. S. Public Health Hospital, a rolling farm land. St. Gabriel's Monastery and St. Elizabeth's Hospital were landmarks for our seniors, numbering about one hundred twenty-five, and living mainly in the Brighton-Allston area. We had no automotive department, since automobiles were limited in number.

Mr. Herbert T. Rich succeeded Mr. Tupper in 1928 and led us into the new building in 1930. Here new names were chosen. The building became the "Castle on the Hill"; the yearbook, which was organized in 1929, became "The Gothic," and our school magazine, "The Imp" became "The Towers." When my predecessor, Mr. Joseph A. Leary, who had succeeded Mr. Rich in 1942, retired, I returned as Head Master to Brighton High.

Much space would be needed to relate the accomplishments of the wonderful men and women with whom I have served at Brighton High. Many spent their last years as teachers here; others were promoted to high positions elsewhere. Volumes could be written about the character and deeds of the thousands of girls and boys who have lived in the "Castle on the Hill." All of us, no matter where we go, will have the seal of Brighton High School stamped indelibly.

As one grows older, one realizes more the importance of high standards, lofty ideals, and spiritual values. Young persons know them, have them, and follow them; but they may appreciate them more as time passes. Thus we may all agree that Brighton High School is not just a building, not just a group of teachers, not merely hundreds of boys and girls. It is all these and much more. Call it your ideal, name it an institution, revere it as a spirit, and you will only begin to appreciate it as your Alma Mater. If not that, I ask you why does the failure, the dropout, the graduate who just slipped by, and the scholarship winner return to the "Castle on the Hill." The walls will not talk to him, the new pupils do not know him, his teachers are gone. Is he searching for the spirit that was once himself? Is he reporting back to the Spirit of Brighton High School, to his Alma Mater?

I made the decision to leave the great English High School to return to Brighton High School in 1956. You tell me why I returned to my Alma Mater.

FACULTY

Miss MARION C. GILMAN.

The class of 1967 deeply mourns the passing of one of Brighton High School's most dedicated English teachers, Miss Marion C. Gilman. She knew no limits in her love for wisdom and search for knowledge.

Miss Gilman was graduated from Boston State Teachers' College where she received her A.B. in English. In the following years she went on to earn her Master's Degree and had been working on her Ph.D.

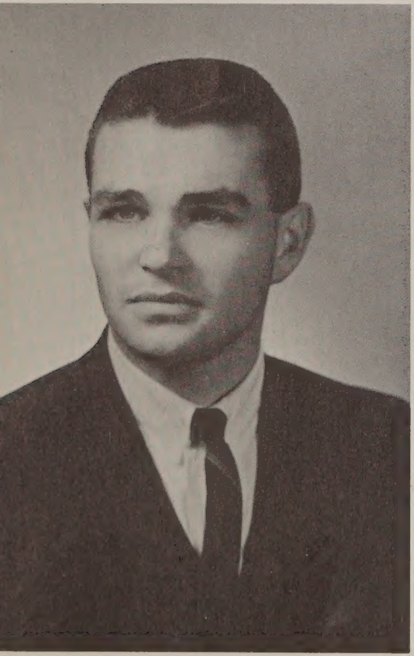
Teaching English, Miss Gilman felt obligated to keep informed of the changes in English usage and literature. She managed this by attending such well known universities as American University, in Washington; Nuachatel, in Switzerland; and Lavelle University, in Quebec.

As Head of the English Department, Miss Gilman supervised the editing of the school magazine "The Towers." Through her inspiration the magazine won the Columbia Scholastic Award, an extremely high honor.

Miss Gilman was a teacher of tremendous ability. Because of her sincere interest in the students at Brighton High School, she became a most revered, respected, and inspired teacher. Her life was a full life, as a traveler, as a teacher, and as a devoted daughter. She loved her career and enjoyed life to its fullest extent. Miss Gilman's life was full; our lives will be more complete for having known her.

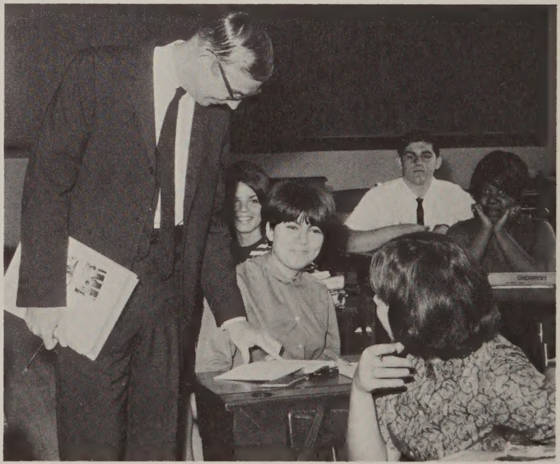
MISS MARION C. GILMAN
Head of English Department

REMEMBER



MR. BRAGA, our young social studies teacher, is now in the pupils' place while studying for his doctorate at Boston College.

MR. KEEFE, our math instructor for two years, has gone on to take a position at the Lincoln Laboratory and has also taken a new bride.



MR. SALTERIO, our Latin teacher, is now teaching at Boston Latin School.

DR. MOORE, one of Brighton High's beloved teachers, has decided to retire after 45 rewarding years of teaching.

MR. PENDOLA, a graduate student from B.C., is now at Dean College in Franklin, Massachusetts, after having taught biology at B.H.S.

MRS. CALLAHAN, who last year substituted in Miss Gilman's English classes, has decided to retire.

MISS HOPKINS, who taught economic geography with us last year, is now a guidance counselor at Girls' Latin School.

MR. McCABE, our former physical education teacher, is now the Assistant Director of Athletics for the Boston School System.

MR. CROKE, our young U.S. history and economics teacher, is now teaching English at Berkeley, California.

Mr. O'Brien assumed the duties of Assistant Head Master in September 1964. A graduate of Boston College and Boston College Graduate School, he taught successively at the Lewis School, Columbia University, and Girls' Latin School. He became Head of the Mathematics Department at English High School in 1956 and held that post until December, 1963, when he was transferred again to Girls' Latin School. He has been a lecturer in Engineering, Mathematics, and Calculus at Northeastern University since 1946. A Commander in the Naval Reserve, he has taught both navigation and operations in the Officer Candidate School at Newport, Rhode Island, and at Treasure Island, California. A former Commanding Officer at Naval Reserve Composite Company 1-25, he is, at present, a member of Naval Reserve Company 1-1, Boston.

ENGLISH

MR. SPRACKLIN, Head of English Department

The English Department plays a major role in preparing students to meet the demands of our complex society.

Mr. Spracklin, Miss O'Leary, and Miss Thompson received Masters' degree at Boston College. Mr. Spracklin, now the Head of the English Department, previously taught at Boys' Latin School. Miss Thompson is the Gothic literary advisor. Her main interests are theology and literature. Miss O'Leary, the Towers faculty advisor, has taken summer courses in England and in Colorado.

Mr. Casey, in addition to being a fine teacher, is also Brighton High's amateur locksmith. A new teacher this year at Brighton High is Mrs. Caraber. She was graduated from Columbus College in South Carolina. Miss Fogel, another new teacher, was an outstanding student at the University of Massachusetts. A very active person, Miss Fogel is a member of a bowling league, and spends her leisure time reading. Mrs. Bates edits and writes for a health and social welfare magazine in addition to doing graduate work in English. Mr. O'Brien graduated from Suffolk University, and is now working toward his master's degree at Northeastern.

SCIENCE

Brighton High School's Science Department has a qualified staff of teachers daily enlightening the students to the mysteries of the world of science.

Mr. Wellings, the head of our department, is a professor at Northeastern University. Two of his hobbies are painting and drawing. Mrs. Johnson, our yearbook advisor, is an alumna of B.H.S. She has her Master's Degree from Boston State College. Besides her teaching, she has attended many seminars with the Gothic Staff. In addition to teaching biology, Mr. Reddy is often seen working on the new data processing. He is also a lecturer in physics at Northeastern University. In connection with his teaching, he has been to the Everglades to study reptiles. Before entering teaching, Miss Nelson was a medical technologist. She obtained her Master's Degree at Bridgewater State College. She is a skier and an amateur photographer. Mr. Healy, who teaches chemistry, is a graduate of Boston College. He is now doing graduate study. Mr. Lerra, one of our new teachers this year, graduated from Michigan State University. He teaches biology and physical science and is our assistant football coach.

MATH

In addition to our already outstanding math faculty, two new teachers have joined our staff.

Mr. Edwards, a graduate of St. Michael's College in Vermont, is a very active man, studying for his M.A. degree at Boston College and Northeastern and skiing in Vermont and New Hampshire in his spare time.

Our southerner, Mr. Johnson, from St. Paul's College in Lawrenceville, Virginia, has received many awards for his talent.

We are honored in having a captain in the United States Air Force, Mr. Durante, as head of our department. He spent this summer working for the National Guard, controlling U.S. aircraft.

Mr. McCarthy, a popular teacher who enjoys his work, received his B.S. degree at the University of Massachusetts and his M.Ed. at Boston College.

Our well traveled teacher Miss Tobin has visited such places as Mexico, Western Europe, the British Isles, and Canada. She was graduated from Emmanuel College with an A.B. and M.A. degree.

HISTORY

OUR AMERICA
EUROPEAN AREA IN WORLD WAR II 1939-1945

MRS. ELISE M. GARVEY, U.S. History.

MR. ROBERT LOFTUS, Modern European History, World History.

Brighton High School has an eminent group of history teachers with diverse backgrounds.

Dr. Henry P. Moore, a graduate of Harvard University, headed the History Department until December 22, 1966. He has traveled extensively throughout Europe, the Mediterranean, and Canada. Mr. Doherty, also a graduate of Harvard University, holds a B.A. and taught American and Modern European History. Brighton High School is richer by the addition of five new faculty members in the History Department. Mrs. Friedlander, a graduate of Indiana University, holds a B.A. and is working toward her M.A. She has traveled throughout Europe and Asia Minor, and has served with the Peace Corps, in Nepal. Miss Holland, who is working toward her M.A., teaches World and U.S. History. She has traveled throughout the Caribbean Islands. Mrs. Garvey, a graduate of Massachusetts State College at Boston, holds a Bachelor of Science degree and a master's degree in education. She has traveled throughout Europe and Canada. Mrs. Garvey teaches U.S. History. Mr. Loftus is working toward his master's degree. He teaches Modern European History and World History. Mr. Sullivan received his B.A. from Boston College and his M.A. from the University of Massachusetts. Mr. Sullivan teaches United States Government and United States History.

Mr. Eddleman who earned his B.S. in history from Boston College joined the faculty in January.

Miss Elizabeth Pelletier, a graduate of Radcliffe College, heads our department. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, she has studied at Laval University in Quebec and at the Sorbonne, a part of the University of Paris. Another French teacher, Miss Maryellen Lowe, is a graduate of St. Lawrence University in Canton, New York. She, also, spent some time studying at the Sorbonne. Her free time is spent listening to opera. Our Latin classes this year are taught by Mr. Thomas Gosnell. He was graduated from Boston College and Rutgers University and has taught at Brighton High School for three years. Our Spanish teacher Miss Maguire received her Master's Degree from State College at Boston. She has visited Asia, Europe, and South America. Miss Cavanaugh graduated from Moravian College, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Miss Mann, a graduate of Boston College, has newly become engaged.

BUSINESS

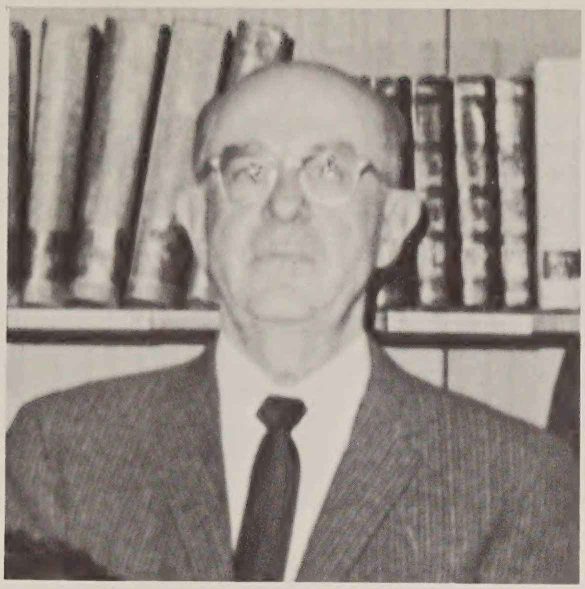
The purpose of the Business Department of Brighton High School is to graduate students who will become skilled and leading members of the business community. In accordance with this purpose Brighton High School has an exceptional business faculty.

The Business Department of Brighton High School is headed by Mr. Craven. He teaches economics, business, and business law. Mrs. Donovan, a graduate of St. Regis College, teaches office practice. Mrs. Boyle is a graduate of Northeastern University where she obtained her Bachelor of Business degree, and of Boston University where she obtained her Master of Business Education. Mrs. DesAutels, a graduate of Boston University where she obtained her M.B.A., teaches Shorthand I and II. Mr. Sennott, who was graduated magna cum laude from Boston College, teaches bookkeeping and typing. Mr. Ball, a graduate of Boston College, teaches typing and shorthand.

Mrs. Rowell is advisor to the Student Council and supervisor of most of the school's social activities. Mr. McCormick is a graduate of Boston College. His extracurricular activities are primarily concerned with sailing in the waters of Cape Cod. Miss Shulman, a graduate of Boston University, has taken over a beginning and advanced shorthand class. She is the only feminine member in the data processing unit of our school.

MRS. FLORENCE DESAUTELS
Typing, Shorthand, Office Practice

MR. JOHN McCORMICK
Business Education



The students of Brighton High School lost an extraordinary teacher, an interested counselor, and a dependable friend when Mr. John M. Barry died on December 16, 1966. The suddenness of his passing made us acutely aware of how beneficial he was to the school and his students, and how greatly we shall all feel this tragic loss.

Mr. Barry came to Brighton High School in 1935. Loved and revered by all his pupils, he taught typing and shorthand for the Business Course. A diligent student himself, he graduated from Boston College High School and attended Boston College where he earned a Bachelor of Business degree. After his college graduation he earned his master's degree in business. In addition to his full-time teaching, Mr. Barry had held the honored post of publisher of the "New England Teacher" magazine and worked zealously on it at the Little Building in Boston for many years.

Loiterers on the second floor will always remember the twinkle in his eye and his understanding smile as he hurried them along to class. Respected and admired by all, he lived a full and happy life with his wife and four children.

His family, his friends, his students, and the faculty of Brighton High will never forget this loyal and devoted man.

HOME ECONOMICS

MRS. LOIS F. WOODS
Home Economics, Clothing, Home Management

Home economics courses help the girls to become good homemakers now and in the future. The teachers in this department are Mrs. Woods, who received her master's degree from Simmons College, and Mrs. Moncy, who graduated from Georgia Woman's College and did graduate work at Simmons College. This course, important for both career girls and homemakers, teaches specific skills and prepares the girls to undertake their roles as proficient women in today's society.

HAPPINESS

ART

The Art Department (or Happiness is) has an ideal. This ideal is the aesthetic and artistic growth of every student in the school. We try to achieve this ideal through a program of varied art activities and experiences through which the visual perception of the student is both expanded and deepened. The Art Department attempts to bring art to the entire student body through its exhibitions and through its Art Club.

The aim of the American youth today is to be physically fit. Our Physical Education Department takes a large part in helping us to accomplish this.

The girls' gym classes are conducted by Miss Catherine Blagdon, who graduated from Boston University School of Physical Education and further studied at Stanford University and the University of Wisconsin. Mrs. Gloria D. Pope, our other gym teacher, is a graduate of Howard University, Washington, D.C., and Boston University School of Education.

Mr. Thomas J. Carty, in addition to coaching football, hockey, and baseball, also conducts the boys' gym classes. He is a graduate of Boston University School of Education. Seniors are directing daily exercises held in each homeroom at 10:30 a.m.

HIGH SCHOOL

SENIORS

As the date of our graduation draws closer, I think it is fitting that we look back at and reflect on our three years at Brighton High and their effects on us.

We entered as sophomores, excited, bewildered, and perhaps even a little frightened because we didn't know what to expect from our new teachers and classmates. As juniors, we looked forward to the day the seniors would graduate and we would be the top class in the school. Now at last, or too soon, we are seniors awaiting our own graduation.

Some of us will go into the armed forces to defend our country. Others will go into business and establish themselves in the community. Still others will enter schools of higher education to further their studies. No matter which career we select, we should always try to reflect in it what we have learned at Brighton High.

We shall never forget the many friends we have made in our three years here. Our teachers, who have patiently guided us in becoming responsible and contributing citizens, have earned our lasting gratitude. Especially, I think, we should thank our headmaster, Mr. M. Henry McInerney, who has shown us through his leadership and example the way to be sympathetic toward our fellow men and to use integrity in making our decisions.

REFLECTIONS

On a clear blue shore—beating,
A cloud of fluffy brine billows.
Beneath, a small young brook—
rushing,
Surrounded by shading willows,

The young thing's world obscurely reflected,
Flowing, stumbling, the product of it all,
Not secure in where it's actually headed
But gaining maturity with each rock it crawls,

Anxious to join the river that's near,
Darkened reflections—confusion—
no fear,
With the ocean next bend—
groping,
Desperate, a growing current—seeking.

With a last bit of energy and a little more,
Swung up in a surge, thrown on the shore.
Small are the ripples, while its great force commands
An imposing swell, leaving its mark on the sands.

CLASS ORATOR:
Richard Ross.

CLASS ORATION

Soon we, the class of 1967, will be leaving the halls of Brighton High School. We must take an objective look at ourselves. First, we have been called a cynical generation. I should like to remind the pessimists who downgrade us that it is the young-people of our time, under the leadership of a young President, who have made programs like the Peace Corps and V.I.S.T.A. realities. It is also this generation which has added more impetus to the civil rights movement than any preceeding generation. I ask the critics of today's youth whether they did more to raise the standard of living of some poverty-stricken family in the United States or in some foreign country? Did they do more toward achieving equality for all, thus holding up the ideas set forth in our Constitution. They may criticize us, but the results of our actions will be looked on with respect, I think, by future generations, who will be able to judge us in a more objective manner.

Upon leaving high school, we must try to realize our dreams of peace and equality. These ideals cannot be accomplished by an apathetic society. We must live, become involved in community life, for aren't we the future leaders of our country? Doesn't the destiny of this country depend on an active, educated, and informed citizenry? The preceding generations realized this; therefore, they built schools such as our own Brighton High School to provide for the development of solid citizens with the right of free speech and the right of dissent. We have seen examples of this right in action, in the recent anti-Vietnam demonstrations. The majority of citizens, having been brought up on this basic right as set forth in the Constitution, may not necessarily agree with the dissenters but do agree with their right to voice opposing opinions. As Voltaire once said, "I may disagree with what you say, but will defend to the death your right to say it." Fortunately it is institutions like Brighton High School which uphold and cherish these ideals.

Another emphasis of this school is the development of each unique human personality and the ideal of individualism. If any student has joined a club, starred athletically, shone intellectually, or by his presence added to the general spirit of the school, then he has not only added something of great importance to the school but experienced something of even greater importance to himself.

Each student, like a brick or a mortar, is and always will be an integral part of Brighton High School. New ideas will arise and be forgotten, names will seldom be remembered, even the stone which is the physical aspect of the school will some day be destroyed. Yet, the high ideals fostered here and the spirit which pervades the hearts and minds of all of us will be a permanent reminder of what Brighton High School has been to each of us.

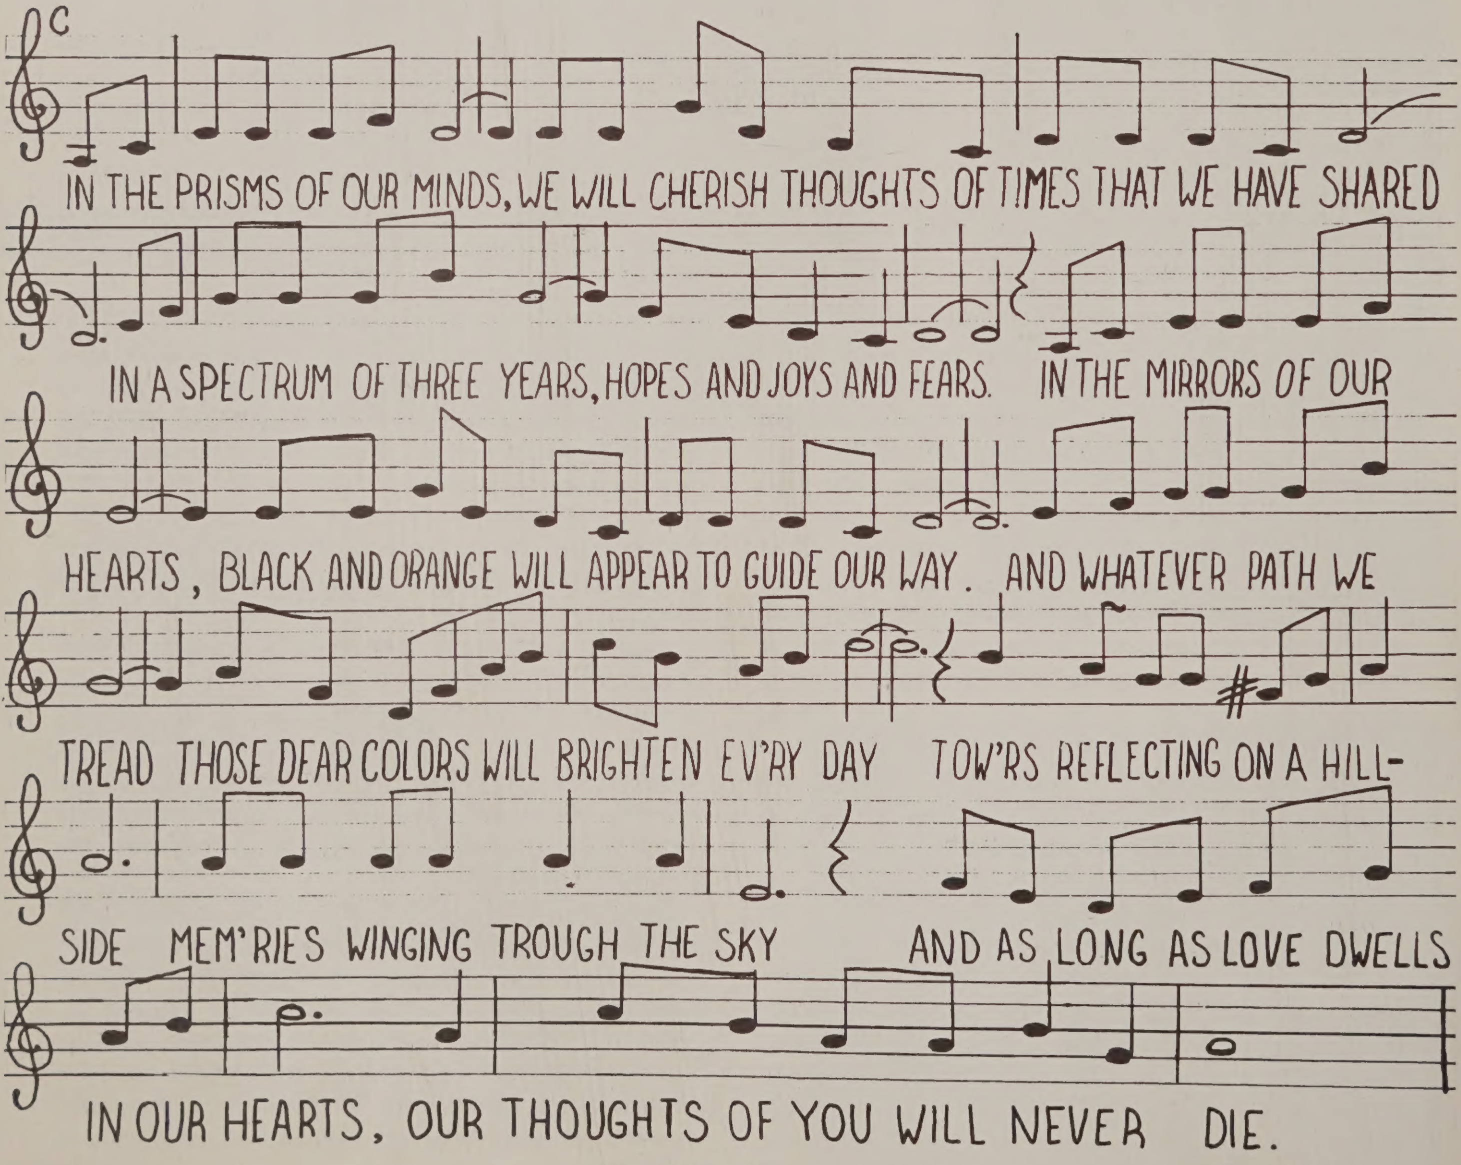
CLASS SONG



C
IN THE PRISMS OF OUR MINDS, WE WILL CHERISH THOUGHTS OF TIMES THAT WE HAVE SHARED IN A SPECTRUM OF THREE YEARS, HOPES AND JOYS AND FEARS. IN THE MIRRORS OF OUR HEARTS, BLACK AND ORANGE WILL APPEAR TO GUIDE OUR WAY. AND WHATEVER PATH WE TREAD THOSE DEAR COLORS WILL BRIGHTEN EV'RY DAY TOW'RS REFLECTING ON A HILL-SIDE MEM'RIES WINGING TROUGH THE SKY AND AS LONG AS LOVE DWELLS IN OUR HEARTS, OUR THOUGHTS OF YOU WILL NEVER DIE.

COACHES

A veteran of twenty-seven years of coaching, Coach Thomas Carty is a staunch disciplinarian who requires all his players to participate in every practice. The coach's belief in the importance of fundamentals stems from his own days on the football, baseball, and track teams of Jamaica Plain High, and later on the Boston University Football team. Those of us who have played under him in his capacity as Head Coach of the football, hockey, and baseball teams are grateful to have had this opportunity to benefit from his experience and fairness.

In his three years of coaching at Brighton High, Coach Robert McCarthy has exhibited a true devotion to athletics and the development of young men. As Ass't football coach, and head basketball coach, Mr. McCarthy spent much of his free time scouting other teams and preparing plays. Coach McCarthy's own athletic endeavors include his efforts on the English High football and hockey teams, the Notre Dame University football team, and later service ball in the Marine Corps.

Coach Thomas Lerra is now in his first year at B.H.S. where he is Line Coach of the football squad and our track coach. Coach Lerra belonged to the football and track teams of Michigan State University and English High where he became the City Champion Shot Putter.

FOOTBALL

The Brighton High football squad opened the 1966 season with a 14-0 victory over Boston Trade in the jamboree. David Hale raced 30 yards to score Brighton's first points of the season. Steve Barry later ran 41 yards to make the score 14-0.

It was a short-handed Brighton squad which bowed to Charlestown the following week. The first half saw no scoring by either team thanks to a goal line stand by the BHS defensive unit following a Charlestown interception. However, Charlestown scored to take an 8 point lead late in the second half. After recovering an on-side kick the Townies scored again to put the game out of reach at 14-0.

Brighton's first official victory came in the form of an 18-0 shutout against Dorchester. The first tally came early in the second quarter when Bruce Walker bulled his way 6 yards off tackle. Later in the same period quarterback Steve Barry combined with end Vinny Brown for a 29 yard touchdown pass to make it 12-0. In the final quarter, after Brighton recovered a Dot fumble, Barry and Brown again combined, this time for an 18-yard touchdown pass.

The Southie-Brighton game was a disaster for Brighton. Scoring two touchdowns in the first quarter and two more in the second, Southie led 24-0 at halftime. On returning to the field, South Boston scored 14 points more in the third quarter. Hopes on the Brighton bench to avoid a shutout rose in the fourth quarter when Fred Ahearn, playing defensive guard, broke into the Southie backfield, knocked down a lateral, and recovered the ball for Brighton. However, the offense could not move and the score remained 38-0.

The Orange and Black proved to be more successful against Jamaica Plain. Scoring began early in the first quarter when Bob Guidinas completed a 10-yard touchdown pass to Dave Monroe. In the fourth quarter Steve Barry took the ball at the line of scrimmage, and as he was tackled about 25 yards downfield, lateraled to Bruce Walker, who ran the remaining 31 yards to the end zone to make the final tally 12-0.

Again lack of personnel resulted in a Brighton defeat, this time at the hands of East Boston. Eastie began the scoring with a TD and a conversion. Brighton bounced back when Steve Barry threw a 42-yard pass touched by the two Eastie men covering Dave Monroe. Monroe, however, came up with the ball and ran 30 yards for a touchdown. A conversion by Dave Hale tied it up at 8 to 8. Eastie, however, came out to score 30 points in the second half to win 38-8.

In the midst of a torrential rainstorm the Brighton squad, minus several key players, bowed to Hyde Park. H.P. scored 14 points in the first quarter before the BHS defense tightened up. Brighton's only score came in the third quarter when fullback Bruce Walker plunged three yeards. When time ran out the Brighton offensive unit, greatly slowed by the deep mud, was inside the Hyde Park 5-yard line, but the score remained 14-6.

Brighton was again defeated when they met Boston Tech. Quarterback Bob Guidinas and end Dave Monroe combined for two touchdowns on passes of 26 and 56 yards. Bruce Walker ran 35 yards for Brighton's third score of the day, but Tech came out on top, 32-18.

The final game of the year was a defeat by arch-rival Roslindale. Brighton opened the scoring in the second period when quarterback Guidinas and Bill Arrington combined on a 6-yard pass play. Roslindale, however, came back and scored because of an obviously bad call which ruled an incomplete pass complete in the end zone. The conversion attempt failed when Roslindale's halfback tried to run through Fred Ahearn at tackle. Roslindale scored again near the end of the half but the conversion attempt again failed when the Rossie back tried to run through Bob Belle at left guard. Guidinas combined on a 78-yard pass to Dave Monroe to tie it up in the third quarter, but Rossie scored in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach, 18-12.

HOCKEY

Led by Co-captains Greg MacLeod and John Young, coach Tom Carty's hockey squad skated to another successful season. Undefeated in the final half of the season, the squad achieved a record of 8-2-2, and as a result received an invitation to the State Hockey Tournament for the third time in as many years.

ton and South Boston and played to a 1-1 tie against Hyde Park and Southie, the B.H.S. six accounted for the biggest upset of the year when, to the tune of unusually spirited spectators, they defeated Charlestown 5 to 2 in the final game of the season.

With several returning lettermen, it looks like more good seasons ahead.

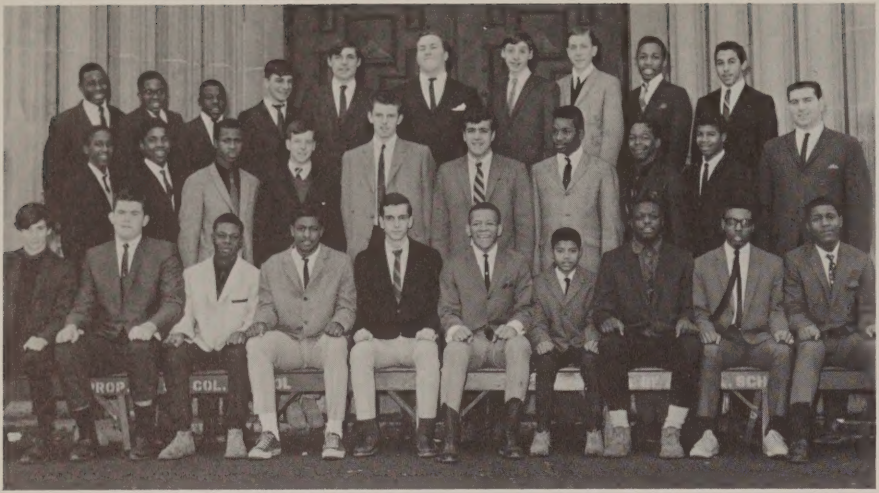
TRACK



Row 1: Bill Flamoris, Dennis Buckley, Dennis Best, David Hale, Larry Mazzola, Otis Cash, James Sally, Bobby Bell, Valdamore Ingerman, Colton Mero. Row 2: Arthur Laney, Walter Ashe, Clayton Dffee, Mike Wilcox, Buck Buchanan, Leo Seletsky, James Jackson, Hank McDuffie, Alvin Pope, Coach Tom Lerra. Row 3: Louis Law, Oscar Ridley, Willie Underwood, Joe Falco, Paul Anderson, Richard Kehoe, Steven Arcese, Howie Freeman, Ken Hines, Ricardo Gomes.

Under the leadership of Coach Tom Lerra, the Brighton High Track squad had a relatively successful season. Among the highlights of the season were such feats as the winning of the Class A shot put title by Dennis Buckley and Alvin Pope's winning of the low hurdles championship. Captain Otis Cash and Howard Freeman are to be complimented for their performances in the mile run while Clayton Effie and Michael Robinson deserve credit for high jumping. Leo Seletsky, Rich Kehoe, and Tim Edwards are others who did a fine job putting the shot for B.H.S. These boys and the others on the squad deserve praise for the fine efforts and long hours of practice which they gave this past season.

BASKETBALL

The 1967 basketball season proved to be more successful than last year's, but was still a disappointment. Under the guidance of Coach Bob McCarthy the team compiled a record of 3 wins and 8 losses. However, the record is deceiving. Several of our losses were by the slim margin of one or two points.

This year the squad boasted of a victory over archrival Roslindale on our home court in the final game of the season. The other two victories were over East Boston.

As the team was composed chiefly of underclassmen most of whom are returning for one or two more seasons, brighter days are ahead for B.H.S. on the basketball courts.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Lanie Hanlon drives in for two.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Gloria Pope, the Girls' Basketball Team compiled a 2 and 8 record in their first season of activity with victories over Hyde Park and South Boston. As the Junior Varsity squad boasted a record of being undefeated in all their eight games, the future of this team looks bright.

Get that ball in.

Up for the rebound!

Rough action under the boards.

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer as carefully as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The 1967 GOTHIC Staff would like to extend thanks to everyone whose work behind the scenes has facilitated the production of this yearbook:

To our advisers, Mrs. Johnson, Miss Pelletier, Miss Thompson, Mrs. Bates, Miss Brennan, Mr. Wilson, and Mr. Manfra, whose guidance and encouragement aided us in persevering.

To Mrs. Boyle, who very willingly devised a form for the potential Junior Diploma Candidates.

To Mr. Farnham, representative of the Wm. J. Keller Inc. and all of the printers and proofreaders who caught the errors that we missed.

To Purdy's Studio for their help in the photographic coverage and financial backing.

To Mr. Stanley Johnson, who made sure that we reached our deadlines on time.

To Mr. Frank Fowler, our ring representative, and to countless others who took such an interest in the work and production of the 1967 GOTHIC.

Our Most Grateful Thanks,
Gustavo F. Silvestri and Beatriz S. Miranda
